

KERRISDALE MOUNTAIN RAILWAY

Take a ride back into history as we travel up the Hume highway via Kilmore and Broadford to the Kerrisdale Mountain Railway. In the 1950s' steam power was still 'King' on the railways and every boy dreamed of becoming an engine driver. Take a ride on the Kerrisdale Mountain Railway and see the Malcolm Moore, The Ruston and Hornsby Locomotives which were purchased and fully rebuilt.

We then head to Flowerdale where we stop at the Flowerdale Hotel for a delicious two course lunch.

After lunch we will travel to Kinglake and visit the Flying Tarts Bakery. This bakery was spared after nearly 30 residents sheltering there put out spot fires during the Black Saturday fires. Here you will have a chance to purchase some tasty treats. Then sit back and relax as we head home. (Closed Tuesday and Wednesday)
