

TOOMUC VALLEY

Just over an hour, south east of Melbourne is a hidden treasure known as Toomuc Valley. The valley provides visitors with a chance to browse amongst the variety of arts and products for sale. Today we will visit McClelland Gallery and Sculpture Garden at Langwarrin where we will enjoy a complimentary morning tea.

Then visit "The Glass Shoppe", a studio outlet and seconds shop which has a glittering array of carved and blown glassware. Beading enthusiasts will adore the range of jewellery available. Glass artists, Mick and Annie O'Riley have been producing unique pieces since the mid 1970's. Their glassware is found all over Australia and overseas. During your day out you will also enjoy a delicious 2 course lunch at the Castella Pakenham Hotel. You will also visit the Robert Gordon Pottery Factory outlet with its fabulous array of locally produced pottery and homewares. Then settle back for your relaxing journey home.
